

A Ward In The Infants' Hospital

(The "Little Patients" Puzzle)

*Made by R. Journet for The Infants' Hospital, Vincent Square, London, circa 1930? (was sold with a cardboard cover showing the title The "Little Patients" Puzzle; wood box with glass top, 4" x 5" x 1"; directions on the box bottom; see also the Infants' Hospital Puzzle, Dad's Puzzler - Exchange Version / Infants' Hospital, Infants' Hospital - The Magic Line, Infants' Hospital Jigsaw Puzzle.)*

Box must be manipulated so that little capsules each with a steel ball inside are placed to stand upright in the holes (in the photo, a steel ball can be seen that has come out of a capsule with a worn out end). For information about R. Journet, see Abercrombie & Fitch Dexterity Puzzles.
